

Press Release:

Parke-Vermillion Education and Training Interlocal (PVETI) held a Union Apprenticeship fair on Thursday, March 12 at the Parke County Fairgrounds. 235 students from the Parke and Vermillion county schools were in attendance. The purpose of the event was to introduce students to the Union Trades and what they have to offer. The day's activities began with a presentation given by Michelle Foster, representing Top Notch. Top Notch is the largest labor/management association representing union construction in the state of Indiana. They represent 75,000 union tradesmen and 4,000 contractors. Following the opening presentation, students rotated through presentations made by the Plumbers, Laborers, Carpenters, Electricians, Operating Engineers, Work One, Ivy Tech, and PVETI.
